FAREWELL!
DEAREST MAIDEN.

Farewell! dearest maiden ;
Though for ever we part,
I'll cherish thy image,
Alone in my heart ;
My days will be pass'd, Love,
In anguish and pain ;
Those once happy hours, Love,
I shall ne'er see again.
Farewell! dearest, &c.

When you pledg'd me your heart, Love,
I thought you'd prove true ..
But, alas! I'm deceiv'd, Love,
Made unhappy by you ..
Young Love ne'er will enter
Again in my breast ;
My heart, dearest maiden,
Will never know rest.
Farewell! dearest, &c.

Then, farewell! dearest maiden ;
Though for ever we part,
I'll cherish thy image,
Alone in my heart ;
Though you've prov'd ungrateful
And inconstant to me,
My heart, dearest maiden,
Beats fondly for thee !..
Farewell! dearest, &c.

H. DE MARSAN
PUBLISHER OF SONGS AND BALLADS
PAPER DOLLS TOY BOOKS &c.
54 CHATHAM St. N.Y.